I'm a partner in the real estate team acting for clients in both the private and public sector who value me for my proactive approach and knowing how to get their deals across the line.

With over 16 years' experience at Cripps, my role includes advising large property investment companies, pension funds, private equity companies and local authorities on a wide variety of general commercial property matters.

I have a keen interest in how prop tech and AI can help us to deliver an even higher quality service to our clients, with even greater efficiency.

Areas of expertise:

- Landlord and Tenant
- Retail (property management)
- Shopping centre investment and asset management

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 2006
