As an associate in the plot sales team I provide legal support to our developer clients during the life-span of their residential developments.

I assist clients with a range of matters relating to their residential developments.

With nearly ten years' experience within this sector, I have overseen and resolved a variety of different types of issues and challenges.

I enjoy collaborating with my clients and overseeing the life-span of their developments, getting to know them along the way.

Areas of expertise:

- New build sales (large-scale developments, leasehold blocks and housing association properties)
- Sales and purchases
- Planning agreements
- Dealing with the transfer of control to resident management companies
- Reviewing and advising clients on title issues.

Qualifications and memberships

- Fellow of CILEx (Chartered Institute of Legal Executives) May 2022
