I am a legal director in the corporate team advising on all aspects of corporate law, mainly for private limited companies.

I mainly represent private limited companies, and have specific experience in the healthcare sector, advising pharmacies and domiciliary care providers.

I get great satisfaction from the work that I do, providing an efficient service to clients as well as working effectively with my colleagues as part of a team.

Described by a trainee solicitor as 'a great role model', I like to inspire others and help them to achieve their goals.

Areas of expertise:

- Business acquisitions and disposals
- Healthcare
- Joint ventures
- Shareholder arrangements
- Company reorganisations

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 2012
