I work as a senior paralegal in the residential conveyancing team assisting clients with all aspects of property transactions.

I enjoy the variety of my role as well as being in a client-facing environment. I am committed to ensuring our clients receive an excellent service with my proactive and organised approach.

Buying and selling property is a particularly stressful time and I think it is really important to maintain good communication throughout the whole process.

I am working towards completing my CILEX qualifications in order to become a Chartered Legal Executive, juggling full time work with exams is tough but I am up for the challenge.

- Sales

- ILEX Personal Assistant with Legal Studies
