I'm a partner specialising in professional negligence and group action litigation. My particular expertise is within the financial services sector.

With over 20 years' experience, I am a tenacious and specialist litigator using my expert knowledge and experience to drive beneficial outcomes for clients in challenging circumstances.

I advise my clients on the most appropriate strategy to maximize the prospects of a successful recovery, if necessary, using the court process but, if possible, using less adversarial forms of dispute resolution.

I appreciate that litigation can be time-consuming and stressful. I fight my client's corner with tenacity and strive to make the process as pain free as possible.

I am ranked in the leading legal directory, Chambers and Partners 2024.

Areas of expertise:
