I am a partner in the team specialising in the sale and purchase of high value residential properties and farms and estates.

I have considerable experience in high value property transactions. Chambers describes me as a 'go to person for country houses'. I pride myself on identifying issues and then finding a commercial solution. I am ranked in the 2023 Spear's index of the best property lawyers for high-net-worth individuals as 'recommended'.

I am ranked in the leading legal directory, Chambers and Partners 2024.

Areas of expertise:

Sale and purchase of high value residential properties with a particular focus on country property and farms and estates.

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 2000
- Agricultural Law Association and Country Landowners Association
