I am an associate in the commercial real estate team.

I act for a variety of landlords and tenants and my work spans across many sectors, particularly within the London office and retail markets. I love what I do, whether that be negotiating over sale contracts, new leases or lease renewals, drafting licences for alterations, licences to assign and various other deeds, preparing reports on title, and generally assisting on the sale or purchase of a property.

I strive to understand clients' real needs and provide practical, commercial advice to help them reach their goals. My clients value my proactive and efficient approach.

Clients and colleagues alike comment on my willingness and determination to push transactions over the finish line.
