As a managing associate in the corporate team, I specialise in corporate transactions and advising owners and management teams.

I work with owners and management teams of companies ranging from larger market leaders to owner-managed and family businesses in a variety of sectors.

My transactional work includes mergers and acquisitions, disposals, joint ventures and helping companies raise finance through both debt finance and equity investment. I also advise on general corporate matters including restructuring and drafting bespoke shareholder agreements and articles of association.

I am known for being a hardworking and diligent lawyer who delivers a high level of client service.
