I'm a partner in the real estate team. I am driven by the satisfaction of achieving excellent results for my clients and exceeding expectations.

I'm a natural communicator with in-depth knowledge and extensive experience in the real estate, charities and retail sectors. I prioritise learning and understanding each individual client's commercial needs to enable transactions to run smoothly and reach the desired result.

With an interest and passion for commercial property work, I thrive in the fast-paced legal environment helping my clients further their business needs by advising on a variety of real estate transactions.

I establish excellent relationships with clients from the outset and take pride in the longevity of these.
