I am a senior associate in the residential conveyancing team specialising in all aspects of residential property, particularly the sale, purchase and refinancing of rural properties and landed estates.

I provide commercial and practical advice to a variety of high-net worth individuals, investors and lenders ensuring the best outcome is reached for my clients. I am valued by my clients for my straightforward, common sense approach, as well as my availability and speed of response.

I am also able to call upon a wealth of knowledge, experience and talent from other property teams within the firm to ensure I am giving my clients the best advice possible.

Areas of expertise:

- Sales, purchases and remortgages
- Rural property, landed estates and diversification arrangements
- Agricultural land and woodland
- Farm tenancies and grazing arrangements
- Registration of land

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in September 2022
