I'm a managing associate in commercial real estate, with a broad range of experience. My clients value my clear and practical approach.

At Cripps I act for investors, corporate occupiers and developers. My aim is to add value wherever possible by demystifying the law. My work spans across all sectors, though most notably within retail and the London office market. Thanks to my varied experience, I can cut through negotiations to provide clear and commercial advice to cover the points of critical importance, while never losing sight of the goal and the transaction at hand. Clients commend my confident, conscientious and proactive approach to their work.

Areas of expertise:

- Investment and development acquisitions and disposals
- Commercial leases
- Lease renewals
- Surrenders
- Asset management

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in March 2019
