I'm a partner in the private wealth team working as part of a team that brings a human touch to a very technical area of law.

I have specialised in this area for over 25 years, acting for individuals and families from a range of backgrounds. My clients include entrepreneurs, landed estates, professionals and families with inherited wealth, UK based as well as international.

I advise at all stages of wealth planning – whether that is at the planning and structuring stage; during the life of the structures and trusts; at the winding up or during life or on death at probate.

I act as advisor, trustee, or executor.

Areas of expertise:

- Trusteeship
- Executorship
- Wills
- Estate planning
- UK and international

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 1996
- STEP Diploma
- Member of STEP
