I am a partner in the real estate team. Having worked in property for 35 years as a lawyer, I enjoy understanding my clients' businesses and helping them, with my team, to achieve their aims.

My role includes helping clients on all aspects of their property portfolios, including acquisitions and disposals, lettings, reorganisations, development projects. I problem solve and co-ordinate team members with expert skills in planning, construction and dispute resolution.

I particularly enjoy working with clients to understand, safeguard and promote their property ownership and management philosophies, in the short, medium and long term.
