I'm a partner in the real estate team with over 20 years' experience gained in the City and the south-east. I enjoy problem-solving for my clients.

My role includes advising real estate investors, developers, occupiers, and public sector clients on a wide range of real estate matters.

I advise on redevelopment title and possession issues, as well as site assembly as well as repurposing.

My clients include charities and other voluntary organisations as well as trustee clients, and I have an expertise in ecclesiastical property.

I have a particular interest in energy efficiency management for built estates and 'green' lease issues.

Areas of expertise:

- Redevelopment
- Possession
- Site assembly
- Ecclesiastical property
- Green leases

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 1995
- LLB (European)
