I am a legal director in the residential transactions team where clients value my pragmatic and proactive approach.

With experience spanning over 20 years I advise private clients, landed estates and farming businesses and partnerships on all property matters.

I specialise in ultra-high net worth London property, landed estates and agricultural property.

Clients often describe me as a 'trusted pair of hands' – I remain calm and focused under pressure. I identify my clients' needs and objectives and achieve them efficiently and with minimal fuss.

Areas of expertise:

- Sale and purchase of land and estates
- Easements
- Registration of land
- Refinance
- Options and pre-emptions
- Telecom agreements
- Sale and purchase of high value London property

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in December 2002
- Agricultural Law Association
