As a legal director, I specialise in commercial real estate with a particular emphasis on the retail property sector.

I advise on landlord and tenant transactions, sales and purchases and portfolio management for both public sector and private sector landlords and tenants.

The work I do is interesting and challenging and I enjoy being part of the ever-changing landscape of law. I offer clients a friendly, cost-effective, down-to-earth approach and am always available at the end of the phone. I strive to get the best deal for my client.

I am often praised by clients for my efficiency, approachability, helpful and can-do attitude as well as my clear and straightforward advice.
