I am a managing associate in the planning team with over 12 years of experience in planning law.

I specialise in all aspects of town and country planning law for both private and public sectors relating to all types of development including commercial, residential, mixed use development and regeneration schemes whether this be negotiating complex planning agreements, advising on planning appeals or supporting a client through the planning process from start to finish.

I have a true passion for planning as it allows me to assist clients achieve their goals by advising on more than the law, with policy, political and commercial considerations being equally as important. I pride myself on identifying options for problem solving and providing strategic advice in a clear and efficient manner.
