I'm a senior associate in the planning team and advise on a wide range of planning issues.

One of the most enjoyable aspects of my role is the variety of interesting work – no two days are the same and I enjoy taking on new challenges.

I solve problems by understanding and learning about our clients and their aims in order to provide the best possible outcome for them.

My clients include developers, investors and individuals.

Areas of expertise:

- Section 106 agreements including advising on affordable housing provisions
- Highways agreements
- Listed buildings
- Site planning history reviews

Qualifications and memberships

- Admitted as a solicitor in October 2016
