I am a managing associate in the commercial real estate team with a proven track record of delivering excellent client care.

I deal with all types of non-contentious commercial property transactions including site acquisitions, disposals, leases and property finance.

With over 15 years of commercial property experience, I strive to provide an efficient, pragmatic and cost-effective service.

I have a keen interest in developing and building long lasting client relationships and enjoy working with clients to support them in their legal journey to achieve their objectives.
