I am a chartered legal executive in the commercial dispute resolution team, advising businesses and individuals on a range of disputes and assisting with effective recovery.

I work closely with asset based lending companies and loan providers, assisting on insolvency, debt recovery and commercial and contractual disputes.

I strive to provide the best outcome possible for my clients, ensuring to take into consideration the clients' commercial position, which is paramount in litigation matters.

I recognise that there is not always one route in litigation and therefore understand the importance of evaluating the options available to the client before considering and taking the next steps.

Areas of expertise:

- Contractual disputes
- Insolvency disputes
- Restructuring and insolvency
- Recovery for asset based lenders
- Recovery for loan providers

Qualifications and memberships

- Qualified as CILEX Fellow in July 2022
