As a partner in the commercial dispute resolution team, I regularly advise clients on how to avoid or resolve disputes.

Known for my pragmatic approach, I help clients understand / avoid risks and resolve disputes through negotiation, mediation, other forms of alternative dispute resolution, court action or arbitration.

I typically advise businesses or business people, with a focus on complex or high value litigation, often with an international dimension. I regularly work with our award winning Corporate team to help clients with issues arising out of mergers or acquisitions, or to recover value after a transition has completed.

I also work with Residential Management Companies / leaseholders in relation to corporate or boardroom disputes. I have a passion for food and drink and enjoy working with our clients in this sector.

I am recognised by Chambers and Partners and the Legal 500 as a specialist in Commercial Dispute Resolution.
