As a partner in the real estate team, I act for institutional investors and specialise in real estate investment, development transactions and asset management.

With over 20 years' experience both in the City and Cripps, my role includes advising property companies, real estate funds, developers, and occupiers. I specialise in investment work for UK and overseas property investors across all asset classes and sectors, on both a direct and an indirect basis. I have particular expertise in high value transactions involving complex offshore corporate structures, portfolio acquisitions and disposals, and sale and leaseback transactions. I also assist clients with the asset management of significant retail and industrial schemes.
