

Advising international freight forwarder

We are delighted to have advised on the strategic investment in Seaspac International Forwarders Limited by Emerge Ecommerce Limited, part of Emerge Global.

Stuart Russell-Smith, Director of Seaspac International Forwarders Limited said: “We were pleased with the care and attention given to us by the PDT team to guide us through this transaction including working all hours to ensure the deal completed when we needed it to. There were many facets to this deal and PDT were able to confidently consider and advise us as the matter progressed. We would definitely recommend the PDT team to others looking at undertaking a transaction.”

Seaspac was founded in 1988 as a family company by father and son, Michael and Stuart Russell-Smith, and has operated successfully for over 30 years, becoming a highly respected freight forwarder and logistics provider across air freight, sea freight and fulfilment.

Emerge Global are active investors in e-commerce and manufacturing industries and aim to provide strategic logistics solutions and a tailored supply chain for local markets. By harnessing Seaspac’s established distribution technologies, the deal will allow Emerge to extend their air and sea freight capability thereby enabling its services to reach a greater number of customers and suppliers.

Stuart Russell-Smith, will continue on the board of directors of Seaspac and retain a significant shareholding as the company enters its new phase of ownership. Managing Director, Gordon Humphrey, will also retain a shareholding in the company and continue to lead the management team. Gordon commented, “I enjoyed working with the team who reacted swiftly to changing circumstances and worked positively to achieve completion. Thank you to everyone who helped achieve a successful outcome for all.”
